

PENNSYLVANIA EDUCATION POLICY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

2011-2012 APPLICATION FORM

EPFP Fellows:

- develop a broadened understanding of the policy process and the various aspects of education policy;
- enhance their communication and decision making skills;
- refine their potential for leadership; and
- expand their network of professional colleagues.

EPFC is a Pennsylvania Act 48 approved professional development provider, and a Pennsylvania State Board of Accountancy approved program sponsor.

Pennsylvania Education Policy Fellowship Program

The Education Policy Fellowship Program (EPFP) is a professional development program for individuals whose work record reflects strong leadership abilities and a concern for issues important to children and education.

Participants in the Fellowship Program hold full-time positions in diverse organizations at the local, state, and national levels.

The program is available in Pennsylvania through The Education Policy and Leadership Center (EPLC). The nationally recognized EPFP was established more than 45 years ago by the Institute for Educational Leadership (IEL) in Washington, DC. IEL continues to support the program in the District of Columbia and through its network of state affiliates.

How is the EPFP different from other professional development programs?

EPFP is supported by a national and state network of resource people and peers who have a track record of accomplishment in research, policy development, and effective practice in education, child development, and human services.

In addition, a unique partnership with the U.S. Army War College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania provides EPFP Fellows with training in strategic leadership concepts.

The EPFP provides a comprehensive approach to knowledge and skill-building with a two-day opening retreat, nine full-day seminars in Harrisburg, one regional leadership forum, and one national policy seminar during a ten-month period.

The Pennsylvania Education Policy Fellowship Program is sponsored by:

EPFP Class of 2010-2011

From the perspective of an urban public school district official, the EPFP Program was an invaluable resource of relevant and timely information; providing invaluable perspective on a wide variety of key educational issues. More importantly, however, the EPFP Program entirely transformed my behavior as a citizen; compelling me to advocate for my beliefs and empowering me to engage the political process with zeal and fervor.

Dr. Robert W. Culp (EPFP 2010-2011)
Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction
Allentown School District

As a third-party agent working in many school districts across the K-12 spectrum, this program has been invaluable. The engaging and thoughtful array of speakers and discussions have led to deep reflection on the work of my organization and the direction we must work towards in the future. The EPFP Program has reinforced my commitment to do the best I can to advocate for the children in our public schools. I will always be grateful for the wonderful and warm friendships that have emerged within this group.

Stephen Seliy (EPFP 2010-2011)
Associate Executive Director
The Consortium for Public Education

EPFP and IEL opened the doors of opportunity for two Fellows to present on the Gettysburg and War College experience at the Washington Policy Seminar! Not only was the regional leadership retreat a tremendous experience, but also the opportunity to reflect on the experience, collaborate with a Fellow from another state, and share the experience with Fellows nationally gave even deeper meaning to the events and speakers of those two days! Thank you for a very unique and special element of our EPFP experience!

Dr. Marilyn J. Wells (EPFP 2010-2011)
Interim Assistant Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs
Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education

The Education Policy Fellowship Program brings together a diverse cohort of professionals from education, government, military, human services, business, and community organizations.

You are invited to apply if you have:

- A track record of making things happen – inside and across agencies/organizations.
- A full-time professional position and substantive work experience.
- A bachelor's degree or its equivalent.
- The endorsement and financial support of your employing organization.
- A commitment to personal and professional development.

What is my commitment if I am accepted as an EPFP Fellow?

- Participate in a two-day opening retreat and nine full-day seminars in Harrisburg over a ten-month period.
- Participate in a regional leadership forum and a national policy seminar.
- Share your experience and knowledge with other Fellows through presentations, class discussion, and class projects.
- Conduct independent study and research to expand on issues explored in the program.

How will my organization benefit from my participation in the EPFP?

Employers gain:

- Access to a professional development program with a proven track record.
- Better informed, more skillful employees.
- Employees who are ready to assume more leadership responsibilities.
- Expanded networks that enhance the organization's ability to access key leaders and decision makers who shape policy on behalf of children and education.

What is my employer's commitment in supporting my participation?

- Provide release time for your participation in the Harrisburg seminars, the regional forum, and the national seminar.
- Pay a tuition fee of $2,950 plus all travel-related costs for the regional and national meetings and Harrisburg seminars.

Does participation in the EPFP qualify for Act 48 and SBA credits?

- The EPFP has been approved to provide Act 48 credit to individuals holding Pennsylvania certification, and State Board of Accountancy (SBA) credit to certified public accountants.
- Participants could earn approximately 105 Act 48 credit hours and 105 SBA Continuing Education Credit Hours of Attendance by participating in all scheduled activities.
- If you are interested in receiving Act 48 or SBA credit, please check the appropriate box on the application.

The Fellowship Program is outstanding – timely and strategic especially in the legislative environment public education finds itself. The diversity of the group provided varying opinions and understandings of policies and their impact. All of the presenters were leaders in their areas and provided valuable information on each topic. In addition, the Washington D.C. conference granted each person an insightful view of policies and their development at the national level.

Judith A. Swigart
(2010-2011)
Superintendent of Schools
Greater Latrobe School District

I found that the EPFP presentations and discussions really served to heighten my awareness and understanding of the complex issues facing today's educators and legislators. I gained a greater admiration and appreciation for those who daily invest themselves in those policy, budget, and legislative issues that have such a great impact on our children and families. Hats off to the Pennsylvania EPFP staff who pull this off flawlessly every year!

Chaplain C. David Reese
(EPFP 2010-2011)
Colonel, U.S. Army
Director of Ethical Development
Department of Command, Leadership and Management
U.S. Army War College

My Fellowship has equipped me with the tools to become a change agent for education policy and practices. Attending the EPFP sessions and working with other Fellows to develop a policy project has trained me to be a skilled advocate to bring positive change to the education arena

The Fellowship Program has been an extremely worthwhile experience, which far exceeded my expectations. It gave me a greater understanding of the factors that shape and/or change education policy in Pennsylvania. The networking and relationships that I established with the other Fellows in the program was tremendous and will be very valuable to me throughout the remainder of my career.

Keith Ramsey
(EFPF 2009-2010)
Chief of Finance and Operations
Eastern Lancaster County School District

I thoroughly enjoyed my experience this year. I have grown so much as a leader, from the presentations and the group interaction. I feel much more secure in my new role as a school leader.

Camilla Kasales (EFPF 2009-2010)
Administrative Support and Curriculum
Manager
Commonwealth Connections Academy

The seminars have provided extremely valuable theoretical and practical insight into today's educational issues. The collegial format allowed for a wonderful experience and enabled Fellows to enhance their own leadership capabilities.

Patrick Kelly (EFPF 2008-2009)
Superintendent
Northwestern School District

This Fellowship has been a profoundly worthwhile endeavor from the start. Beginning with the practical application of leadership theories during the high quality opening sessions, through the refinement and enhancement of my understanding of policy initiatives derived from the many excellent guest speakers as well as group work experiences, to the camaraderie and professional respect built among the Fellows throughout the year. The entire experience is one that I will value and draw from throughout my career.

Dr. Mary Ellen Wells
(EFPF 2008-2009)
Associate Professor and Chair, Business
Department
Alvernia University
