

Cara Michaels

Cara A. Michaels is the current Assistant Director of Business Affairs at the School District of Cheltenham Township. She serves as the Secretary of the Delaware Valley School Business Officials (DVASBO) and Vice-President of the Montgomery County Tax Collector Management Committee. She is a member of the Pennsylvania School Business Officials (PASBO) and serves on the Benchmarking, Membership and Conference Committees. She is also a member of ASBO International and serves on the Human Resources Committee.

Cara attended Robert Morris University on a full athletic scholarship and earned both her graduate degree, MBA and undergraduate degree BSBA, concentration in Accounting. She has successfully transitioned her leadership skills as a Division I point guard into her profession. She thrives on team concepts, while never losing sight of leading the team. She continues to evolve as a leader throughout the School Operations environment through her participation in organizations and continued professional development.