

Michelle Minotti

Michelle Minotti has been the Springhouse Middle School Principal since 2006. She has been an educator since 1994. She taught English, Social Studies, Art and Religion at Pius X High School, Roseto, Pennsylvania to students in grades seven to twelve. She was also a teacher at Saucon Valley High School, Hellertown, Pennsylvania, teaching English, Public Speaking, Creative Writing and Theme Writing. She became an assistant principal at Parkland High School, Allentown, Pennsylvania, and three years later an assistant principal at Springhouse Middle School both within the Parkland School District. Michelle is a graduate of Penn State University (BA English/Psychology) and Lehigh University (MA English Education/Educational Leadership). Michelle is currently working on her doctorate at Wilkes University. Michelle resides in Allentown, PA with her husband and three daughters.