

Bonita Allen

Bonita Allen is an activist parent and a consultant engaged in local, statewide and national efforts to increase student achievement by strengthening family engagement. Ms. Allen received her A.B. from Harvard University and has completed all requirements except the dissertation for a Doctorate in Education at Harvard Graduate School of Education. Ms. Allen has 25 years of professional family engagement experience serving both as an instructor of teachers parents, and administrators, and as a mentor for emerging parent leaders. Ms. Allen is currently the Pennsylvania PTA President-Elect, and is a former member of the Pennsylvania Title I State Parent Advisory Council (SPAC). As a SPAC Parent Involvement in Education (PIE) consultant, Ms. Allen continues to provide training and technical assistance to school districts across Pennsylvania.