

Ryan Riley

Ryan currently serves as President and State Director of Communities In Schools of Pennsylvania (CISPA). Immediately prior to CISPA, Ryan served as Vice President for Development and Marketing at Easter Seals Serving Washington, DC, Maryland and Virginia. Ryan started his career in Development and Alumni Relations at Harrisburg University of Science and Technology.

Ryan has presented in a variety of forums on higher education, student leadership, fundraising, and government advocacy including The Pennsylvania Congressional Economic Summit, the Johns Hopkins University Center for Talented Youth, the Annual Philadelphia Higher Education Network of Neighborhood Development (PHENND) Conference, Pennsylvania Campus Compact, The Pennsylvania Association of Hospital Auxiliaries.

He is a past-President of the Harrisburg Young Professionals (HYP), Trustee/Founder of The Hill Society.