

Erich Joella

Erich T. Joella is the Assistant Director for Visual and Performing Arts for the Parkland School District and the choral director and music teacher at Orefield Middle School. He has been teaching in Parkland since 1996. He is also an adjunct professor at Penn State University Lehigh Valley.

Spending the majority of his career in elementary education, he was the music teacher at Kernsville Elementary School until 2012. He served as the elementary department chair and co-founded the Parkland Elementary Chorale with Mrs. Louise Feher.

Mr. Joella is a graduate of Moravian College with degrees in Music Education and Biology. He received his Masters Degree and Principal Certification at Lehigh University and is currently a candidate for his doctoral degree.