

Bridget Clement

Bridget Clement is insightful, engaging and funny. She has spent the last 18 years working in nonprofit management and is dedicated to children, education and the eradication of poverty. Bridget speaks nationally on nonprofit management, marketing, fundraising, building high-performing teams and social service trends.

Bridget is currently the Executive Director of Communities In Schools' Pittsburgh affiliate. She has a degree in communications from Ohio University, is a member of Leadership Pittsburgh class's XXXI, and a 2012 graduate of the Alliance for Strong Families and Communities' Executive Leadership Institute (ELI). She is also the recipient of the Pittsburgh Social Venture Partners' "Fast Pitch Coaches Prize," an award presented for her development and presentation of a three-minute "elevator pitch." Before coming to CIS, Bridget was the Director of Development at Auberle where she organized a team that successfully closed the agency's Delivering Excellence Campaign, raising more than $5.5 million and 2,000 new friends.

She lives in Pittsburgh with her husband and three daughters.
