

Kelly Mefford

Kelly Mefford is a transplant from Ohio who currently serves as the Dean of Students/Intervention specialist with the Dover Area School District. Throughout her professional teaching career, she has served as a third grade teacher, an eighth grade teacher, and a member of the blended learning planning and implementation team in the Northern York County School District. In addition to serving as a professional educator, she has also served a School Board Director and was appointed as the Treasurer. She worked very closely with PSBA through the inaugural Fellowship in school governance and served as her district's appointed voting delegate.

She has earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Toledo, a Bachelor's in Elementary Education through Penn State, a Masters in Teaching and Curriculum from Penn State, and recently completed an administrative certification through Penn State.

Kelly lives in Dover with her amazingly supportive husband, twelve-year-old son, and two Goldendoodles. In her free time, she loves to travel and explore new places.
