

Timothy Mulligan

Tim Mulligan became President/CEO of Communities In Schools of the Lehigh Valley (CISLV) in June, 2011. CISLV is part of the largest and most successful dropout prevention network in America serving 1.5 million students. Our mission is to surround students with a community of support empowering them stay in school and achieve in life. In the Lehigh Valley and Berks Counties, CISLV serves twenty seven schools in five school districts.

Prior to this post, Mulligan was Executive Director of Catholic Charities of Schoharie Co (NY), a human service agency specializing in domestic violence services, counseling, crime victim services and emergency/basic needs programs.

Mulligan also served as the director of campus ministry at the College of St. Elizabeth in Morristown, N.J. and was the executive director of the St. Thomas More Foundation and the Catholic chaplain at Syracuse University and the SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry. There he co-founded Northside Ministries, providing free legal and medical services for the uninsured.

Currently residing in Breinigsville, PA Mulligan is a graduate of Lafayette College and holds a master of divinity and a master of arts in theology from Washington Theological Union, Washington, DC.