

Ann Appolloni, Ed.D.

Dr. Ann Appolloni is a Curriculum, Instruction and Professional Learning Coordinator at the Chester County Intermediate Unit. She currently serves as the Acting Director of the Math/Science/STEM Partnership grant. In her role, she has helped many students and teachers with literacy instructional goals. Ann is a certified trainer for West Ed Reading Apprenticeship and Wilson Language Corporation. She has taught reading for over twenty-five years and has worked in a variety of grade levels, Pre-Kindergarten through adult learners. Ann is an adjunct professor in literacy.

Ann is currently the Co-President of Learning Forward Pennsylvania, the state's professional learning organization, whose mission is to build the capacity of leaders to establish and sustain highly effective professional learning.