

Judith Bookhamer, Ph.D.

Executive Director

Pennsylvania School Counselors Association

Judy Bookhamer currently serves as the Executive Director of the Pennsylvania School Counselors Association. She earned her BS in Secondary Education-English at the Pennsylvania State University, her Master of Education in school counseling at Duquesne University and her Doctor of Philosophy in Counselor Education at the University of Pittsburgh. She served on the committee that developed the PA Academic Standards for Career Education and Work. She served on the PSCA task force that developed the PA Companion Guide to the ASCA National Model and most recently served on the Pennsylvania Department of Education specialist committee that drafted the School Counselor Evaluation Rubric. Currently she serves on the leadership committee of the PA Reach Higher Consortium on College and Career Readiness and serves as chair of the school counselor committee for that group. Dr. Bookhamer worked as an educator in the McKeesport Area School District for thirty-three years. Prior to her retirement from public education, Dr. Bookhamer taught eighth and ninth English and Reading, served as a school counselor at both the middle and high school levels, and concluded her career as Director of Career Education and Counseling Services...all in McKeesport Area School District. She is passionate about the importance and impact of school counseling and school counseling programs.
