

Michael Wood

Executive Budget Manager, Division of Education
Governor's Budget Office

Michael Wood is the manager of the Education Division within the Governor's Budget Office. He holds an MPA from Penn State University and a BBA from Western Michigan University. Before rejoining state government last year, Mike was the research director for the Pennsylvania Budget and Policy Center and the Budget Manager for the City of Harrisburg. He also spent a number of years with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as a Revenue Forecasting Analyst at the Department of Revenue, a Pennsylvania Management Intern, and as an Accountant in the Comptroller's Office. While working at PBPC, Mike authored several research papers and policy briefs on a variety of revenue and budget topics facing Pennsylvania, including property tax issues and education funding.