

Marissa Litman

Marissa Litman is a Senior Managing Consultant with PFM Group Consulting, LLC. Since joining PFM in 2011, Marissa has worked with Pennsylvania's Department of Education to support fiscal recovery efforts in several school districts throughout the Commonwealth. Marissa also works with the Department's charter school team to review finances for the Commonwealth's cyber charter schools.

In addition to her work with school districts, Marissa has worked with municipal governments throughout the country on fiscal recovery efforts and organizational improvements.

Prior to joining PFM, Ms. Litman worked as a Research and Policy Assistant, focused on initiatives designed to improve college accessibility and affordability, and vocational workforce development. Prior to graduate school, Marissa was Associate Director of Annual Giving at Bryn Mawr College.

Marissa holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science from Bryn Mawr College and a Masters in Public Administration from the Fels Institute of Government at the University of Pennsylvania.
