

Michael Petitti

Michael Petitti has been the Director of Communications at Radnor Township School District (Radnor, PA) since August 2011. He is responsible for public and media relations; promotion of district, school and student events and achievements; creating and managing content for the district's website, print materials and social/digital media; strategic communication; and other district communications needs. He also serves as the administrative liaison to the RTSD School Board's Government Relations and Communications Committee. Among other achievements, during Mr. Petitti's tenure, RTSD earned two national communications awards for social media and public relations. Before joining RTSD, Mr. Petitti served for eight years as a communications professional in the private and non-profit sectors and began his career as a reporter with "The Delaware County Daily Times." Mr. Petitti holds a bachelor's degree in Communications and Business Administration from Ursinus College and a master's degree in Organizational Communication and Leadership from Marist College.